Bring Us Your News

Our editing staff is now beginning to work earlier in the day on Tuesdays. We would appreciate receiving community news items by noon on Tuesday. Come in to the office Mondays from 2 to 4 or 8 to 10 p.m. or drop items in the box in the Co-op.

Questions for Council Candidates

To help voters decide which of the six candidates they will vote for on election day, November 7, the Greenbelt News Review is again posing questions to the candidates. Their answers will be published in the October 19 and 26 and November 2 issues. This year there will be five questions posed.

The questions this year are:

1. (Due Monday, October 16 for October 19 issue.) Five murders were committed in less than a year's time in Greenbelt. The number of crimes reported in 1994 increased by 8%. What will you do in your next term of office, if elected, to deal with this problem?

2. (Due Monday, October 16 for October 19 issue.) Council is currently considering options for renovating Roosevelt Center Mall. Do you favor renovating the mall at this time? Why or why not? If the mall is renovated, what changes would you consider most important? Should any trees be removed?

3. (Due Monday, October 23 for October 26 issue.) This year's budget was balanced by spending down $165,700 of reserves (equivalent to the revenue from a three cent tax hike). Future budgets will be even tighter as at least $30,000 more will be needed to operate the new community center and grants will likely be harder to get as the state and federal governments get stingier. How will you balance the budget? Increasing taxes? Cuts in what services? Increasing fees for any services?

4. (Due Monday, October 23 for October 26 issue.) The city has been assuming various powers and responsibilities from the county (such as code enforcement). What, if any, additional powers should the city seek? What benefits would assuming these powers have? What risks would they pose?

5. (Due Monday, October 30 for November 2 issue.) What are your two or three most important goals for the next term? What specific steps would you take to reach these goals?

Rules

1. Responses to each question shall be no more than 150 words. Entries exceeding that length will be cut off at 150 words.

2. Responses may be submitted either by placing them in the News Review box at the Co-op Supermarket or delivering them to the News Review offices at 15 Parkway before 10 p.m. on the Monday preceding the publication date.

3. Candidates should focus on the issues. Personal attacks are not acceptable and will be edited out without consultation with the candidate.

4. Responses shall be typed or machine printed and the lines shall be double spaced. The candidate's name and signature shall be shown at the end of the text but shall not be considered as words counted in the response. The News Review would appreciate receiving the responses on disk, as well as on paper. Word Perfect (preferred), Word Star, Word for Windows, ASCII Text and Apple word processing programs are acceptable. Please note the candidate's name, the program and version used and the file name on the disk label. Disks will be returned when no longer needed by the paper. (Note: 5 inch disks will not fit into News Review box at the Co-op.)

5. The order of the candidates' responses will be determined by lot for each question.

6. It is the intent of the editors to provide an equal opportunity to all candidates to fairly present their views. Decisions of the editors are final.

Cat Killing Upsets Council

by Heather Elizabeth Peterson

What action the city can take against owners of vicious animals was discussed by the Greenbelt City Council at its September 26 meeting.

Attacks on Cats

Mary Ann Canter of 6 Court Hillside, told council that her cat had been killed on August 15 by two dogs owned by a Greenbelt family in another neighborhood. Canter complained that the city's animal control department told her that they could not take any action, since the dogs' owners had notified the department earlier in the day that the dogs were missing.

Canter said that she regarded this at the time as an isolated tragedy. But she went on to describe, through tears, how she took her other cat into her yard on Sept. 23, only to see the two dogs outside her house.

Bill Phelan, who was attending the meeting to discuss another matter, told council that his own cat had been attacked by these dogs on the day Canter's cat was killed. He said that when he called to report the incident "I was treated as though I was the culprit, though the cat was at my back gate."

City Attorney Robert Manzi told council that the county code describes a vicious animal as one which bites "persons or animals." He said that no animal, whether vicious or not, is allowed to run loose in the city, adding, "The city's animal control officer does have the appropriate tools to deal with a situation of this sort."

Staff agreed to check into the matter. However, Councilmember Edward Putens said, "I'm very, very concerned that this was not brought to our attention . . . and that the appropriate action was not taken." Putens added that "this should not have come to council" because it should have been dealt with properly.

Cable TV Problems

Gerald Madison came before council to describe the problems that he and other residents had been experiencing with Maryland Cable. Madison said that recently "cable has been extremely poor, service has been extremely poor, and communication has been extremely poor."

According to Madison, many Greenbelt residents have been having difficulties with their cable television reception, but that Maryland Cable has not responded adequately to complaints. In some cases, Madison said, residents had received assurance that they would be credited for missed service, but this had not been done. In other cases, he said, Maryland Cable has denied that there was any problem. "They more or less insinuate you're a liar," said Madison.

Madison said that it had taken him an hour and a half to get through to a service representative on the company's telephone line. Putens, who had originally raised this issue with the general manager of Maryland Cable at the September 11 council meeting, said that he still had not received any explanation for the problems. Hobbs said that any residents who experience problems with cable may call staff at

Update on Cats, Dogs

by Heather Elizabeth Peterson

Since the September 26 council meeting, the City Manager's office and the police have released additional information on the attacks on cats.

At the time that the cats were attacked, the dogs were being searched for by the dogs' owners, police officers, and the city animal warden, Martha Fenn.

After the dogs were taken into custody by Fenn, she had them examined by a veterinarian at the County Animal Shelter to check, in the words of Police Chief James R. Craze, "the dogs' temperament as to viciousness." The dogs were cleared by the veterinarian.

The Deputy Chief of the Animal Control Commission, Rodney Taylor, and Mike Daugherty of the County Attorney's office both told Fenn that charges could not be placed against the dog owners. They based this advice on the county code, which states that, "No animal running at large by accident with a person in immediate pursuit of it shall be deemed to be at large or a stray."

On September 23, according to the dogs' owners, the dogs were hooked in their backyard but were later discovered to be missing. The owners reported to the police that the dogs had been stolen.

According to Mary Ann Canter, she saw the dogs outside her house and then brought them to the county animal shelter. The Animal Control Commission is presently considering a request that the owners be refunded the $460 fine they paid to have the dogs released to them on the second occasion.

On A Recent Walk-Thru

Greenbelt's New Community Center

by Sandra Lange

There is an air of nostalgia mingled with excitement as you climb the steps into Greenbelt's historic Community Center these days. You may remember where the county library used to be, in a classroom located just to the right of the entrance nearest the parking lot. Or you may have visions of the late city councilman and former Greenbelt Homes, Inc. president Charlie Schwan presiding at a particularly contentious GHI annual meeting in the auditorium/gymnasium on your left. Or, on a more prosaic level, you may recall the bathrooms with their child-sized sinks and toilets.

The new building is still the old building, so the memories linger on. It is the same, but different. Built in 1937 as a combination elementary school/community center, the school is gone and a new Greenbelt Elementary School has been built on Ridge Road. The old building, with its new furnishings, its new chocolate tile floors, its gleaming stainless steel kitchens and art deco lighting fixtures, awaits its new occupants.

Scheduled to open in late October—the exact date shifts from day to day—this building is to be the City of Greenbelt's Community Center. Artists and writers, senior citizens groups and a nursery school, the Greenbelt News Review, and the Greenbelt Museum, will soon be moving into their designated spaces.

Dance troupes will be able to rehearse in a first-class studio with mirrored walls. Dance classes can be held day or evening. There is gallery space for artists to display their paintings and computers for literary types to create their essays. There is a television studio for citizens to broadcast their messages via Greenbelt's community access cable channel.

The auditorium/gym has a new floor and new lights that look like upside down trash cans; it will be ready for that first basketball game soon. At last there may be enough rooms for most Greenbelters to meet every night of the week. Then, again, maybe not.

The Greenbelt Nursery School, on the lower level, has three huge rooms with their own kitchen and doors that open out onto a

Once a Week?

Please allow me to share the following refuse-musings with your readers. First: more than one person has confided, "What's with all that mixing of recyclable paper and cardboard in the new Greenbelt Recycling Program? I bet you once they have collected the stuff, they dump it right back in the landfill." Fortunately, that scenario is an economic impossibility. Reason: the city gets paid for its collected recyclables, while it costs $49/ton to dump material in a county landfill. In other words: what entrepreneur would pay the city for recyclables, then pay again at the landfill to dispose of them? No, what is happening is that, depending on price developments on the markets for recyclables, our mixed materials either get sold as "grade 6 paper" (low quality!) and turned into such items as file folders, stationery and newspapers, or it gets indeed sorted and part of it is sold as "grade 8 paper" for a much better price. Either way: the city gets paid and the recycling processor makes a profit.

Next, for the Greenbelt resident, an interesting change is taking place. In the old days, most refuse was still garbage, and only a relatively small part of the total volume was recycled. But now, when one combines the mixed paper and glass, plastic and metal curbside pickup with composting and with bringing-plastic-bags-to-the Co-op, then the result is that the volume of actual garbage becomes dwarfed by the total volume of recycled materials. As a result, I for one, have started to set out my real garbage only once a week. There just is not enough to have it picked up twice weekly. Maybe we all could start using once-a-week curbside-garbage collection. We could lower the annual cost of trash collection. After all, we pay $15 per year for our recyclables-pickup compared to $138 per year for our refuse ditto. Yes, I realize that the city pays for disposing of the refuse and gets paid for the recyclables. But still, what with the dwindling volume of refuse, a ratio of about 1 to 9 seems quite high.

I would like to suggest that readers share their thoughts on the subject with Tracy Vincent from the Public Works Department. She can be reached at 474-8308, and she told me that she loves to receive your comments.

Last: for each ton of mixed paper collected in the curbside recycling program the city avoids paying $49 in landfill expenses while receiving about $50. A monetary difference of about $100. Recycling efforts sure do pay off in both the environmental and the economical field!

Bonsai Demonstration

A basic demonstration of styling and potting bonsai will be given by a knowledgeable bonsai enthusiast in the Yoshimura Center in the Bonsai and Penjing Museum of the National Arboretum on Sundays, October 8 and 22 at 1:30 p.m.

For more information, call (202) 245-2726.

Thanks

There are not enough words in the English language to express our heartfelt thanks to all our friends in Greenbelt for your many cards, letters, prayers and phone calls to us while we were facing a crisis in Chicago. There is no doubt in our minds that your prayers sustained us throughout this ordeal, and that God listened and performed a miracle.

The doctors seem optimistic about my (Jim's) prognosis, and I hope to get back soon to all the committees that I've enjoyed serving on in the past—and to the Golden Age Club in particular.

Thank you all again, and be assured we will never forget your kindness.

Betty and Jim Maher

Woodland Committee Deserves Thanks

Sincere thanks to the Woodlands Committee for the recent clean up of an area of woods near Plateau. It is so nice to walk there now without tripping over an old sink, or getting my feet caught in wire fencing, carelessly discarded.

It is important to express gratitude to those who maintain the trails. Part of this maintenance involves hauling and placing heavy logs across the steeper trails in order to slow the flow of rain water so there is less erosion of the paths.

Much obliged. Good job, Woodlands Committee and all those who turned out to help them.

Jean Snyder

Thanks

We want to thank the Greenbelt City Council for its unanimous vote in the Sept. 11 meeting. Also special thanks to Rodney Roberts, for making sure that our U.S. Senators and Rep. Hoyer are informed that the city opposes the upcoming bills, H.R. 1020 and Senate Bill 167 that can bring the highest level nuclear waste shipments for 30 plus years on our tracks and the capital beltway as soon as 1998. A vote is expected on the bills in early October. Takoma Park and Mt. Rainier have passed resolutions to the same effect to avoid nearby transportation routes by opposing these bills. Our City Council also asked for support of the Markey and Richardson House Bill and S. 544 which creates a new independent review of our nation's nuclear waste policy. Existing waste can be monitored where it is. We believe safe transport and disposal technology is not ready.

Ray and Barbara Stevens

GBC Says Thanks

The Greenbelt Bicycle Coalition extends a heartfelt thanks to the Greenbelt Lions and the Greenbelt Bicycle Patrol for an excellent bike safety program and bike helmet give-away program for children, held from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Beltway Plaza last Saturday, September 30. We believe that excellent presentations like this will lead to safer bicycling and less bike accidents by the area's younger cyclists.

6-Mile Hike

Accompany a park ranger for this six-mile hike along the Bridle Trail which circles the western part of Greenbelt Park. Meet at the campground entrance on Sunday, October 8, at 10 a.m.

Beyond that we aren't much help. We have no idea what the occasion was, and we can't recognize anyone else.

We would be very interested in finding out the occasion and the names.

We and our three sons lived in Greenbelt from January 1946 to mid 1950. I was a volunteer reporter on the Greenbelt Cooperator then. We had many friends in Greenbelt.

We now live in Mercer Island, Washington near our five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Son Jerry lives in Seattle; son John lives in Maui; and son Jim lives in Taiwan.

Greenbelt Snakes

Join a park ranger for a demonstration and discussion on snakes found in Greenbelt Park. Meet at park headquarters on Sunday, October 8 at 4 p.m.

Delivery Delays

Last week, equipment problems resulted in late delivery of News Review. The papers, which normally arrive early Thursday evening, did not arrive in Greenbelt till Friday afternoon. Similar though less severe problems also occurred two weeks earlier.

Chesapeake Printing has taken steps to ensure that future delays do not occur. We apologize to our readers for any inconvenience caused by the late delivery and thank our circulation staff and carriers for doing their best to get the paper delivered as quickly as they did.

Be Fire Safe Coloring Contest

As a part of National Fire Prevention Week, October 8-14, the Greenbelt office of Coldwell Banker Nyman Realty is sponsoring a "Be Fire Safe" coloring contest for students at three local schools. The contest runs simultaneously with National Fire Prevention Week. During that week the students will learn to be fire safe by coloring pages that deal with fire prevention. Greenbelt Elementary, Lamont Elementary, and Robert Frost Elementary will submit the pages for prizes to be presented at an open house to be held at Nyman's office on Hanover Parkway. First prize will be a smoke detector with batteries; 2nd and 3rd prizes will be fire extinguishers.

Seniors Open Forum Features Candidates

The Sixth Annual Seniors Open Forum sponsored by the Senior Citizens Advisory Committee will be held at Schrom Hills Park on Saturday, October 14 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. A light picnic lunch will be provided by area merchants.

The five incumbent council members all of whom are running for re-election, Mayor Toni Bram, Mayor Pro-tem Ed Putens, Thomas White, Rodney Roberts and "J" Davis, as well as the challenger, Valerie Siegel, have been invited to attend. City staff representatives are also expected to be on hand.

This event gives an opportunity for seniors' concerns to be raised, discussed, and forwarded to the city council and manager for appropriate attention. The meeting will be conducted from 11 to noon followed by the lunch. Those who plan to attend should RSVP to Karen Haseley at 397-2200 to provide a count for sufficient food. Transportation is also available upon request. The Advisory Committee Chair, Pat Unger, may be reached in the evening at 474-1914.

Greenbelt Greens To Hold Meeting

The Greenbelt Greens will hold its monthly meeting on Thursday October 12 at 7:30 in the Police Station, corner of Crescent and Ridge Roads. There will be a discussion of the Greenbelt City Council Election and other matters. Refreshments will be served. For further information: 474-1998.

Greenbelt CARES Holds GED Courses

Greenbelt CARES will begin the fall semester GED program on Tuesday, October 10. (Course will end on December 14.)

GED I is held from 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. GED II is held from 1-3 p.m.

GED I is for students who need review of basic math (addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, fractions, decimals, percentages and word problems) and English grammar skills.

GED II is for students who have successfully completed GED I and/or are ready to learn algebra and geometry, English literature and writing skills, and prepare to take the GED test.

GED is held every Tuesday and Thursday, for 10 weeks, in the Municipal Building Conference Room, 25 Crescent Road. There is no charge for either course, but students are required to purchase a copy of the textbook.

Students do not have to be 16 years of age in order to take the GED course. Students are eligible to take a GED pre-test given at Greenbelt CARES, at no cost. The actual GED test is given by the State of Maryland, not Greenbelt CARES. However, students who are ready to take the test can obtain the application forms from Greenbelt CARES.

Questions and enrollment information regarding either GED I or GED II should be directed to Judy Hering, course instructor, at Greenbelt CARES, 301-345-6660.

U. of Md. Symphony To Play at Roosevelt

On Wednesday, Oct. 11, at 8 p.m., the University of Maryland Symphony Orchestra, conducted by William Hudson, will present Beethoven's Symphony No. 3, Opus 55 in E-Flat, the "Eroica," and Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 2 in G minor, with pianist Naoko Takao, at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Admission is free.

Poetry Plus

The Poetry Plus reading and discussion group will meet on Saturday, October 14, at 10:30 at the Greenbelt Library.

Special guest, Poet Daniel Mark Epstein, will read from his book, "The Boy in the Well."

For more information call (301) 345-5800.

The program is presented by the library system in partnership with the Friends of the Greenbelt Library.

Festival—Craft Show

Holy Cross Lutheran Church invites residents of Greenbelt to join us for our Fall Festival and Craft Show on Sunday, October 15, from 1-4 p.m. Included in the afternoon's festivities will be a craft show featuring many local area craftspeople, food, games for children and adults, bingo, a moon bounce, a professional clown, face painting and a pumpkin patch. Most games require 1 ticket to play. The Church is located at 6905 Greenbelt Road, directly across from the Greenbelt American Legion.

Golden Age Club

by Dolores Capotosto

The next meeting will be held on Oct. 11, at the Youth Center. All meetings are from 11 a.m. to noon. We are trying to get a guest speaker, since the Oct. Birthday Social will be combined with the Halloween Party.

Sign up for the Oct. trip to Luray Caverns, and the Nov. trip to the Eastern Shore of MD. Check the list as the time for trips grows near. Some people (like this reporter) forget to sign up and think they did!

The trip to Antietam was an exceptional one - what beautiful weather! Our guide (Jim Stephen, from the National War College) made us feel like we could almost see the troops coming over the hill. It was surprising to learn that President McKinley was a Supply Sergeant (for the Union, of course); and when the war was over, he was still only 18 years old! They took them young in those days.

After dinner, at Charlestown Race Track, we had great fun picking the horses to bet our two bucks on. Most of us used the catchy names they had. One horse threw his female jockey, and ran like a blue streak, all by himself. Actually, they had to scratch him. (That means he couldn't run.)

Come to the meetings and join in the fun and projects.

The Ad Hoc Committee on The Historic District Study meets Wednesday, Oct. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Board Room.

The next GHI Board Meeting is Oct. 26 at 7:30 p.m.

Exploring Cars

On Friday, October 13, Joe Aulisio from Greenbelt Auto and Truck Repair, will be the speaker at "Explorations Unlimited." Aulisio will be talking about how to maintain a car and prepare it for the winter months. He will also answer general questions about car maintenance and how to avoid possible problems. He has owned this local car repair for ten years.

"Explorations Unlimited" is a speaker series held every Friday from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Youth Center. Everyone is welcome to attend and questions are always encouraged. For more information call 397-2200.

New Deal Cafe Open Meeting

The New Deal Cafe will hold an open meeting on Monday, Oct. 9 at 8 p.m. in the GHI building. Pinning its hopes on a members-only practice opening on Oct. 28 and a public opening Nov. 3, the Board of Directors will discuss the status of T-shirt and mug orders, committee activities, insurance, the community center lease, and food service certification.

Less than a year since last November's Open House, the city's own cafe is about to start serving coffee and pastries. Anyone interested in helping with final preparations for the opening is welcome to attend.

Our National Parks

Harman Reappointed To Co. Commission

Emory A. Harman, of Lastner Lane, has been reappointed by Gov. Parris Glendening to the nine-member Judicial Nominating Commission for Prince Georges County. This is the second term on the commission for Harman, who spent 17 years as Greenbelt's Postmaster (to 1980).

A city resident for 48 years, Emory and his wife, Margie, who died last year, raised three children and involved themselves deeply in school, church, Lion's Club, City, and University of Maryland activities.

During 39 years in the local Lion's Chapter, Harman has held all officer and chairman posts, was Lion of the Year three times, and writes their column for the News Review.

At the Community Church, he has held numerous offices and has volunteered in the Pastor's office for 15 years. He held offices in PTAs, led Boy Scout troops, and still gives time to Green Ridge House and Youth Center needs.

President of the Greenbelt Historical Society since 1978, Harman also spent six years on Labor Day Festival work, one year as chairman. He worked on the 50th Anniversary History book, the City of Greenbelt Charter and Bylaws Revision Committee, and is a Life member of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A Life member of just about every University of Maryland sports boosters groups, Harman for many years chaired the "away-game" bus trip committee.

In 1984, he was chosen by the Maryland Jaycees as one of the ten Outstanding Senior Citizens in the State.

Pope on TV

Maryland Cable announced that they will extend the programming hours of The Eternal Word Television Network (EWTN), channel 4A, to carry live coverage of Pope John Paul II's visit to America. EWTN programming hours run through Sunday, October 8, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day. The programming hours for Bravo will be changed to accommodate this schedule.

Caucus to Discuss Future of County

The Prince Georges Peace and Justice Caucus will meet on Thursday, October 12 at 8 in the Berwyn Presbyterian Church. The Church is at the corner of Greenbelt Rd. and 63rd Ave. Parking is behind the church off 63rd Ave.

The meeting agenda includes subjects that will play a large role in the future of the County. The primary topic will be how to deal with the actions of the current Congress which undo many of the social programs going back to the New Deal in 1932. Also affected are most of the health and safety measures and laws protecting the environment, enacted in the last several decades. Additional topics for the meeting are: combating crime through anti-violence and conflict resolution programs; and the roles of the new School Superintendent and Police Chief.

It is the input of concerned citizens that will bring about desired changes. Community residents are invited to attend and make their contributions.

For additional information call Bertram Donn, 474-1353 or Tony Langbehn, 390-9684.

Hurricane Relief

A Hurricane Relief Collection Basket has been placed at Greenbelt Travel Services, Cherrywood Lane to benefit the victims of hurricane Marilyn in the U.S. Virgin Islands which caused extensive damage to life and property.

The Virgin Islands Association and V.I. Posse Softball Team have been collecting weekly donations and flying them to San Juan and St. Croix from where they are shipped to St. Thomas and St. John. Some of the priority items needed by the hurricane victims are batteries, flashlights, first aid supplies, baby items and personal hygiene items. For more information call Austin Gibbs at 459-7509.

Institute for Creative And Performing Arts

The Friends of Maryland Summer Institute for the Creative and performing Arts (MSICPA) invite the public to a free concert on Sunday, October 8 at 8 p.m. The concert, which celebrates another year of successful fundraising, volunteer activity and advocacy for MSICPA, will be held in Ulrich Recital Hall, Tawes Fine Arts Bldg. # Rabies Scare Alerts Authorities After Local Woman, Cat Are Bitten For Hazardous Wastes

by Barbara Likowski

A Greenbelt woman was bitten by a rabid raccoon in her yard in the 4 Court of Laurel Hill Road on Wednesday, Sept. 27 shortly before 3:10 p.m. She was talking over the fence to a neighbor about ten feet from a walkway when her pet cat started to act strangely. It ran under a neighbor's porch and would not come out. "It acted scared," she said.

Minutes later the woman saw a raccoon running down a grassy path between houses which neighbors call "the alley." The raccoon was coming from the general direction of Laurel Hill Road, or possibly from Ridge for the day. The inner walkway at 2 Court Laurel Hill Road is where some of the children walk home. It is not known if the boys were from the school.

According to the victim, the boys began to follow the raccoon from a distance and were cautioned by a neighbor not to do so.

Earlier Encounter

Earlier in the day the first known appearance of what may have been the same raccoon was in the 6 Court Hillside Road. A woman walking her dog on the inner walkway saw a raccoon chasing a cat through a nearby yard. She asked a 6 Court neigh-

Children should be cautioned to stay away from any such animal.

According to Fenn, it is important for people to keep their animals confined and under their control at all times. It is important that they keep their pets' shots up to date. The shot is now given in a one year or three year effective dose. There is no such thing as a shot that gives ten year or lifetime immunity. Pets also need to have had an up-to-date distemper shot.

Register by Tuesday To Vote for Council

Tuesday, October 10, is the deadline to register to vote in the November 7 City Council election.

Voter registration forms may be picked up at the Greenbelt Library and must be hand carried to the County Board of Elections, 14701 Oden Bowie Drive in Upper Marlboro by 4 p.m. on October 10. (Note: Monday, October 9, is a federal holiday and this office will be closed.)

The County's election rolls are used for this election as the city is no longer involved with this procedure.

Household hazardous waste is dangerous. Such products as pesticides, herbicides, photographic chemicals, and oil-based paint need special handling. They must be disposed of during the County-sponsored "Household Hazardous Waste Collection Days." These chemicals are not welcome at the Recycling Drop-Off Center.

The next "Household Hazardous Waste Collection Day" is scheduled for Sunday, October 22 from 8 a.m. - 3 p.m. at Eleanor Roosevelt High School on Hanover Parkway and Greenbelt Road. This program is free to Prince Georges County residents. Greenbelters are encouraged to take advantage of the convenient location and to clean out workshops and garages in order to rid their households of flammable and toxic chemicals no longer in use.

Because waits are longer in the afternoon, residents should arrive early to save time. No material will be accepted before 8 a.m. Materials accepted for disposal include: paint thinners and old paint, brake fluid, antifreeze, motor oil, gasoline and kerosene, swimming pool and photographic chemicals, herbicides, pesticides, and insecticides. Substances should be brought in their original containers. No commercial waste will be accepted.

Responsible disposal is the responsibility of each individual resident. For more information, call 95-CLEAN or the Office of Recycling at 883-5045.

The raccoon ran straight to the woman, growled, bit her on the leg and kept on going.

Road. It passed two boys, whom she estimated to be about 12 years old, and passed within two feet of an orange cat. The raccoon ran straight to the woman, growled, bit her on the leg and kept on going down another "alley" in the direction of 2 Court Laurel Hill Road. The victim said that she believes the fact that she was wearing shorts attracted the raccoon to her bare legs.

Meanwhile a neighbor had called the animal warden. Three policemen and the animal warden responded quickly. The police blocked off some of the area: Martha Fenn, the city's animal warden, was able to corner and capture the raccoon. It was then shot by the police.

The victim, whose leg was bleeding, was taken by ambulance to Doctors Community Hospital, where the wound was treated and she received a tetanus shot. "It hit an artery," she told this reporter. The victim also said she had to wait several hours at the hospital until post-rabies medication was located at another hospital in the metropolitan area. She was not able to return home until about 11 that night.

According to the victim, the raccoon was skinny and it was limping with what seemed to be a bent paw. The animal's body was sent to the Prince Georges County Department of Health, where it was tested and found to be positive for rabies. The victim will have to have five injections within 28 days. They are no longer given in the abdomen.

At the time that the raccoon was in the area of 4 Court Laurel Hill Road, Greenbelt Elementary School was about to dismiss bor to call the animal warden.

The raccoon chased the cat through two yards and attacked it in a third yard, which was fenced. The cat was cornered between two sides of the fence. The loud howling alerted other 6 Court neighbors, who called the animal warden. When the raccoon saw a man looking over the fence, it ran off down the sidewalk. It was last seen going toward the woods between the Cop nursery school and the houses on Woodland Way.

The hurt, frightened cat ran across the yard to the stoop of the house, an amazing feat since it was later found to have two broken legs, a fractured shoulder and other injuries.

Soon after, at 10:27 a.m., the policeman and animal warden arrived. The cat was taken to the station and then taken to an animal hospital. Later it was put to sleep.

The policeman searched the nearby area but was unable to locate the raccoon. So far as is known there were no other sightings of the raccoon that day.

In the police report the raccoon is described as male, 20 to 25 lbs, black, gray and white with long, straight hair.

Anyone who has a pet that was bitten or scratched severely that day and cannot account for the cause should notify the animal warden at 474-7200 or the Prince Georges County Health Department at 499-8300.

People who see an animal which is acting strangely or a nocturnal animal that is out in the daytime, should not go near it. They should notify the authorities immediately.

OFFICIAL NOTICE ABSENTEE VOTING

Municipal Election - November 7, 1995

Any qualified elector who would be prevented from voting in the municipal election by reason of religious beliefs, physical condition, or absence from the city on the day of election is entitled to vote by absentee ballot.

- (1) Letters of application for absentee ballots may be written to the City Clerk, stating why an absentee ballot is needed: if more than one ballot is needed, the letter must be signed by all persons wanting a ballot; or
- (2) Application forms may be obtained in the City Clerk's office in the Municipal Building, 25 Crescent Road.

Applications to vote by absentee ballot will be accepted from Wednesday, October 18th, until noon Monday, November 6, 1995. The completed absentee ballot must be returned to the City Clerk no later than 6:00 p.m. the day of the regular election, Tuesday, November 7th.

Electors may complete their absentee ballot at the City Clerk's office at the time they present their written applications, if they wish.

For information, please call 474-8000 or 474-3870.

Re-elect MAYOR Bram For Greenbelt City Council

Mayor Toni Bram chairing a Council meeting.

- ★ Effective Public Safety
- ★ Environmental Sensitivity
- ★ Dependable City Services
- ★ Sound Budget Management
- ★ Protection of Your Neighborhoods
- ★ Recreational Programs for the Family

In her 12 years on Greenbelt City Council, the last two as Mayor, Toni Bram has worked toward making landmark decisions that effect the welfare of our community. The placement of a full time Police Officer at Eleanor Roosevelt High School and vicinity, and the establishment of a Community Policing Program, acclaimed statewide, are two of these initiatives. Her concern for future project funding led Toni Bram to lobby the County and State, wherever possible, to bring back well over a half million dollars in two years for the Community Center. Toni Bram cares about tomorrow.

County Council to Consider Townhouse Limits, Curfews

by James Giese

Twenty-nine bills and five resolutions were presented for the consideration of the Prince Georges County Council consideration at its September 26 meeting, according to Councilwoman Audrey Scott. They were referred to council committees for review and recommendations, where they may be modified, amended or dismissed.

Many of the bills relate to development. Two bills address the proliferation of townhouses in the county. According to Scott, Prince Georges has the highest ratio of townhouses and the least number of estate houses. Even more townhouses are proposed. Since January 1995, 1,095 new townhouses have been approved, Scott said. These bills are opposed by local developers. Proponents argue that townhouses do not pay their way in terms of schools, public facilities and services.

One of the proposed bills, CB-77, would prohibit the construction of townhomes in most residential zones. Another CB-79, requires that townhouses in certain zones be constructed on lots of at least 1,500 square feet, have brick fronts, and comprise no more than 10% of the total development.

Scott reports that another group of bills would eliminate the requirement for moderately priced dwelling units (MPDUs). The MPDU program, created in 1990, requires new developments to include 10% MPDUs and gave developers a 10% density bonus for complying. Proponents of the bills to eliminate the MPDUs believe that the MPDUs contribute to the proliferation of lowcost townhouses. At present there are more MPDUs available than qualified buyers, according to Scott.

Impact on Schools

CB-83 and CB-84 are companion bills relating to the impact of new development upon schools. CB-83 requires imposing a surcharge on each new housing unit to be dedicated to school construction; it would apply to all residential building permits applied for after June 30, 1996. The surcharge may not exceed $1,500 per single family detached dwelling, $800 per townhouse, or $400 per multifamily dwelling. The impact of such legislation is to raise the ultimate cost of new housing and reduce the number of people able to make new home purchases. It would also provide the county with additional funds needed to build new schools to serve new developments.

CB-84 would eliminate the Adequate Public Facilities (APF) test for schools for new housing construction because the school facilities surcharge would replace the need for including schools in the APF test.

Curfew Law

Other bills of note, according to Scott, include CB-103. That bill revises the current curfew law enacted in 1967 in order to make it conform to laws upheld by various reviewing courts. The proposed legislation would impose a general curfew on persons under the age of 17 between midnight and 5 a.m. on week nights and provides for certain exceptions such as employment and adult-supervised activities.

CB-102 further regulates the use of burglar alarms, which result in the extraordinary number of false alarms received by public safety agencies, according to Scott. For a fourth false alarm a fee of $50 would be charged, and for 13 and more the fee would be $200.

Also before the council will be bills to approve union contracts negotiated by the county executive's office with the police, sheriffs, correctional officers, and crossing guards.

Legislative Volunteers

Interested in the world of politics and legislation? The Maryland Governor's Office, located at the State House in Annapolis, is in need of people to act as community liaisons, performing such duties as answering phones, performing research, and acting as escorts. If interested, please contact Barbara Sweeney at 410-974-3594 Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

Barbershop Harmony By Female Singers

Maryland Harmony, Sweet Adelines Barbershop Chorus and Quartets will present a free concert on Mon., Oct. 9 at the Memorial Chapel on the College Park Campus of the University of Maryland. The program, given by an all female group, will begin at 7:15 p.m. Parking is free.

Council

474-8000, and that the city would resolve such matters.

Council adopted a motion to send a letter to Maryland Cable asking for reimbursement to Greenbelt residents for missed cable service.

Potpourri

In other business:

—Albert Herling expressed his concern that the city was not consulted about the decision to transfer the librarian in charge of the Greenbelt Branch's Tugwell Room to another county library. "It seems to me that it's a matter of politeness as well as good managerial policy" to consult the city in these matters, he said. Council agreed, deciding to send a letter to the county library system suggesting, in Putens's words, that the librarian selection process be "more sensitive to the community as a whole."

—Councilmember Rodney Roberts was disturbed by reports that pedestrians and cyclists are not being allowed to pass after 6 p.m. through the Beaverdam and Research Roads gate bordering the Beltsville Agricultural Research Center (BARC). Roberts said that it was his understanding that the gate was originally built only to prevent vehicular traffic from passing that way. Roberts also expressed his concern that BARC deer hunting was taking place too close to city property. Council moved to check into both matters.

—Charles K. Ryan III gave a presentation describing the work of Habitat for Humanity, Prince Georges County. The charity, whose best-known volunteer is former President Jimmy Carter, builds houses throughout the world for the needy. Ryan described Habitat as "not a handout but a hand up," since the new homeowners participate in the building of the house. Ryan said that the organization is presently building homes in the area, and that those interested in buying a house under Habitat's low mortgage plan may call 925-6921. Habitat is also looking for volunteers, even those who know nothing about building houses. "We'll teach you how to drive a nail straight," said Ryan.

New Sidewalk

—City Horticulturalist Bill Phelan described a sidewalk which staff hopes to build on Crescent Road between Ridge Road and Kenilworth Avenue. The sidewalk would go through a wooded area, but only one- or two-inch-wide trees would be removed. Council approved the sidewalk, though they wish to discuss various aspects of the plan at a later date.

—Council approved the use of space in the Community Center for both the Adult Day Care and the New Deal Cafe.

—Council approved the concept of a parking lot in Hunting Ridge, but sent back to the Advisory Planning Board a plan for changing the approved sizes of yards at the proposed English Country Manor.

—Council approved a request by Greenbelt Homes, Inc., that the city participate in a study to determine whether Greenbelt should be designated as a National Historic Landmark.

Mystery Photo Still Part Mystery •

In a combined effort of longtime former Greenbelt News Review staffers, two out of every three persons in our last mystery photo were identified. That leaves ten unknowns. Also, although the group is composed of News Review (or Greenbelt Cooperator) staffers at a dinner in the early 1950's (or late 40's?), where the dinner was held is also unknown. Thanks to Dorothy McGee for providing us with the picture, to the Klein's who sent us some names from Merced Island, Washington (see Letter to the Editor) and to all other contributors.

The known participants (l. to r.) are: Standing — Unknown man, Sally Meredith, William Klein, Ruth Bowman, three unknown persons, Mr. Mott (?), Tom and Ellie Ritchie and Syd Spindel (on right); seated — Jim and Charlotte Walsh, Ellen Linson, unknown man, Aimee and Orville Slye, Jenni Klein, John McGee, Dorothy McGee, Mrs. Mott, unknown couple, Nathaniel and Peggy Markfield, Rachel Algaze, Isadore and Janet Parker, David and Mrs. Reznikoff.

Our thoughts are with former Greenbelter Camilla Faye Sokol, now of Birmingham, AL, who has been diagnosed with obliterative bronchitis, a life threatening condition. Greenbelt friends may contact her at 281 W. Oxmoor Road, Apt. 2E, Birmingham, AL where she resides with husband, Charlie.

Congratulations to Leta Mach who received a national award from the National Cooperative Month Planning Committee on October 2 in Washington for distinguished service on behalf of the co-operative community. Mach, who is Director of Communications for the National Cooperative Business Association, was recognized as a cooperative leader in communications. Mach also is a member of the News Review Staff.

Greenbelt, the Labor Day parade, carnival, and museum will be featured in a television documentary about America to be shown in 1996 in Romania. Sanda Visan (Vee-shawn), a TV producer from Romania, is in the United States until next February. She is studying for a Masters Degree in Communications at Temple University in Philadelphia on a Fulbright scholarship.

Seen filming the parade and meeting Greenbelters, Sanda was introduced to crab cakes and sweet potato fries as she ended the day at a gathering of family and friends at the home of Isaac Robinson and Janet Parker.

When she returns home she will carry with her copies of the Greenbelt News Review, a brochure about GHI and fond memories of the friendliness and the uniqueness of Greenbelt.

Sandi Dutton, of Beltsville, is one of 2,400 delegates, alternates and distinguished guests who recently attended the 75th annual American Legion Auxiliary National Convention. Dutton, a member of the Greenbelt Auxiliary Unit #136, Greenbelt, is National Americanism chair of the American Legion Auxiliary. Previously, she served as National Junior Activities chair and vice chair of National Security. Dutton, an advertising marketing representative, is a 25-year member of the Auxiliary. She is the wife of Richard Dutton, a Vietnam-era veteran. The Duttons have one son, Jack.

Host Families Needed For Exchange Students

International Student Exchange, Inc. (ISE) is presently seeking host families for students from 17 different countries. Students between the ages of 15 and 18 are carefully screened by ISE for suitability. They bring their own spending money and are covered by health insurance.

While living here, a student attends the local high school and is expected to bear his or her share of household responsibilities. The length of stay can range from six months to a full year. An ISE representative will help select a student from numerous student applications which include family photos and biographical essays.

For more information on being an ISE host family or on becoming a representative with opportunities for travel, paid expenses and commissions, call ISE at 1-800-233-4678.

Owl Prowl

Come on an owl prowling and look and listen for these creatures of the night on Sunday, October 15 from 7-9 p.m. in the Patuxent Research Refuge. This program is for ages 8 and older. Advance registration is required. Call 410-674-3304.

Programs are held at the North Tract Visitor Contact Station of the Patuxent Research Refuge, Bald Eagle Drive, Laurel, off Route 198 between the Baltimore Washington Parkway and Route 32.

Teen Tour De Fun

Due to the overwhelming success of the first "Tour De Fun," The Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission (M-NCPPC) Park Rangers decided to do it again. This time it's the teens who are invited to participate in a bicycle tour around the scenic biker trail from Lake Artemisia to Colmar Manor Community Park. The ride will take place on Saturday, Oct. 14, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The group will meet at the Lake Artemisia parking lot in Berwyn Heights.

This event will consist of a 15-mile bike ride with stops along the way to learn information on the history and ecology of the area. Participants are asked to bring their own bikes, helmets, snacks and plenty of fluids.

The event is free, but due to limited space pre-registration is required. To register or for further information call (301) 627-7755; TTY(301) 699-2544.

The Department of Parks and Recreation is committed to accommodating individuals with disabilities. Please contact the facility manager for any assistance to participate or for further questions.

Recreation Review

Craft Show

The Greenbelt Recreation Department is searching for talented artisans and crafters to participate in the Twenty Fourth Annual Craft Show and Sale. The Craft Show will be the highlight of the community-wide Festival of Lights holiday celebration.

The Craft Show and Sale will take place on Saturday, December 2 from 10 to 5 p.m. and on Sunday, December 3 from 11 to 4 p.m. This year's show will be held at the newly renovated Greenbelt Community Center (formerly Center School).

For additional information contact the Recreation Department Business Office at 397-2200.

Community First Aid & Safety

The Community First Aid and Safety class will be held on October 24, 25 and 26 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Greenbelt Aquatic and Fitness Center. For more information call 397-2200.

Saturday Family Drop-In

Bring your family to Schrom Hills Park every Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. for table games, arts and crafts and a variety of other activities. For more information call 397-2200.

Discover Butterflies

An interactive Butterfly Discovery Cart will be offered at the National Arboretum on Saturday, Oct. 7 from noon-3 p.m. to give children and their parents a chance to learn about the amazing world of butterflies. An Arboretum staff person will guide participants through several interactive activities that facilitate a better understanding of butterfly ecology, life cycles, and how butterflies can be attracted to the home landscape. Activities are informal and will vary with materials availability. The activity will be held across from the meadow near the National Capitol Columns.

Herb Lore Seminar

On Saturday, Oct. 14, from 1 to 3 p.m., Old Maryland Farm, located in Watkins Regional Park, 301 Watkins Park Drive, is sponsoring a program entitled "Herbal Harvest, Preparation and Folklore." The entire family is invited to enjoy this display and presentation which will include growing, harvesting and storing herbs, and folklore pertaining to different medicinal properties that herbs are said to possess.

This event is free, will be held rain or shine and does not require reservations. For further information call (301) 249-7077; TTY (301) 699-2544.

Roberts is dedicated to his job on council. In his first four years, he has NEVER missed a regular council meeting or work session.

Roberts' proposed program of police bicycle patrols and community policing is now a reality. Rodney will continue working to expand these programs.

Roberts has stood alone against proposed developments in East Greenbelt which he believes would be detrimental to existing neighborhoods and the city as a whole.

Roberts' has worked steadily for over 8 years to protect the natural environment in and around Greenbelt.

Roberts works to make sure our tax dollars are carefully managed. He is a strong believer in the Greenbelt tradition of volunteerism and civic activism.

Roberts believes in providing the best recreational facilities possible for Greenbelters of all ages.

Roberts always makes sure everyone's views can be heard.

Roberts provides honest, open, and independent leadership.

playground they will share with the Recreation Department. The old porcelain sinks that were such a fixture in the old classrooms have remained, now surrounded by a new formica countertop.

Adult Day Care

The Baptist Senior Adult Ministries is a major tenant. Located on the lower level, where the old cafeteria used to be, the adult day care center has its own entrance on the back of the building facing the Youth Center. The parking lot has been reconfigured to allow vans to pull up to the entrance, drive around a circle and park in a separate area. The adults will be protected from the elements by a canopy as they enter and exit the building. Their space includes a nurse's station, showers, and private rooms for resting, as well as activity rooms.

The city's planning/code enforcement department has several rooms on the second floor of the newer (1967) wing. The Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center has space for costume storage and rehearsals. The Friends of the Greenbelt Museum has office space on the second floor and a visitors' center/exhibit area on the first floor where the principal's office used to be.

After more than 30 years in its basement quarters at 15 Parkway, the News Review will move its offices to space near the auditorium. The newspaper will have its own outside entrance door. A new ambiance will replace the old familiar cluttered office with its orange painted cinderblock walls, vintage Royal upright typewriters and plumbing pipes snaking across the ceiling. All will be changed some time in November. The News Review joins the new age with a modern office with fax machines, copiers and computers.

Flexible Space

Much remains to be completed, but activities are already planned for the Community Center. Many rooms are available for rent. Some of the space is designated during the day, but available for rent in the evening. Two rooms on the first floor will be available for a Food and Friendship Service for seniors where they can get hot meals during the day.

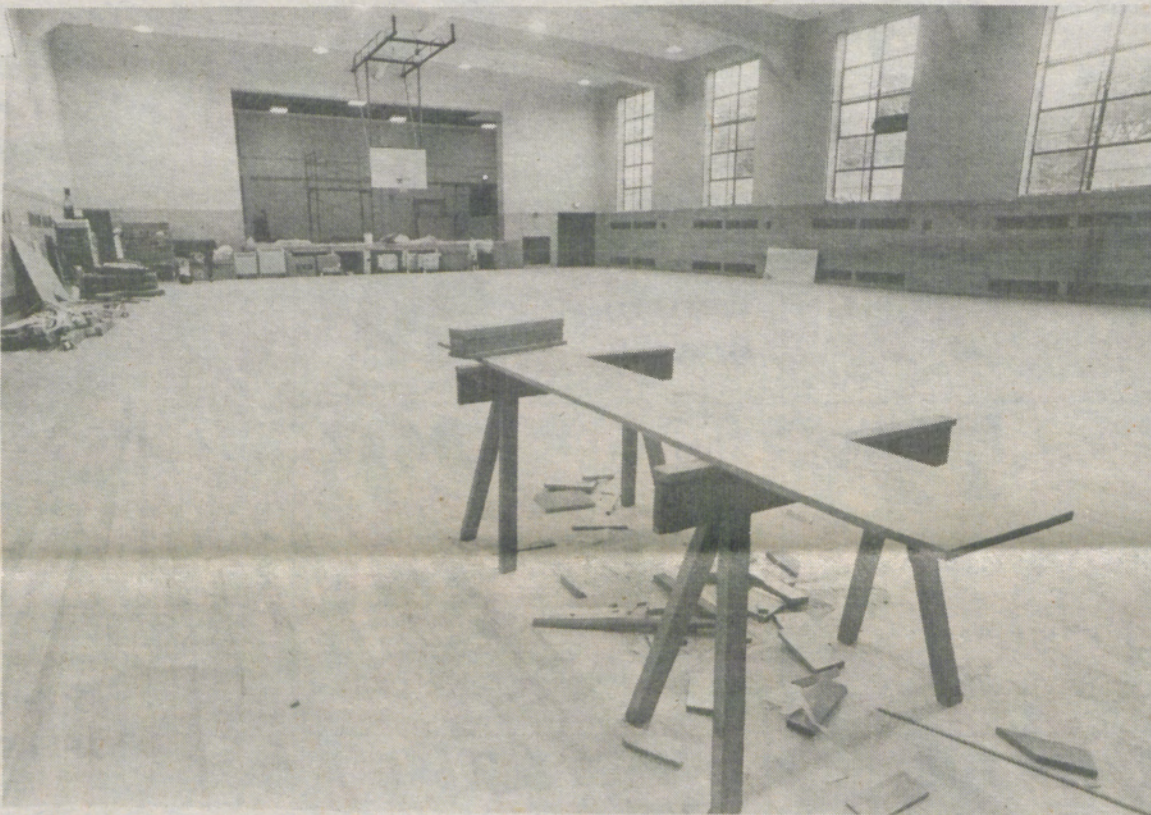

In the evening, these same rooms are available for a variety of community uses. Someone has rented the space for a 100th birthday celebration in mid-October. The Friends of the Greenbelt Museum has scheduled a program entitled "Is Greenbelt Really Great? An Historian's View" for the evening of October 19. The "New Deal Cafe" expects to rent this space on weekends.

Security cameras will monitor the hallways. There are 33 exterior doors, but most will not open from the outside. The building will be accessible 24 hours a day for tenants. Elevators will take people to the second floor or to the basement. One elevator provides access to the first floor by taking people up the equivalent of three steps. New windows have yet to be chosen and approved by the Maryland State Historic Trust.

Viewed from the outside, the Community Center has the same white walls, bas reliefs, green doors and glass blocks. From the inside, the old and the new mingle. The dropped ceilings and art deco lighting fixtures blend easily with the oak doors and the mustard colored tile walls.

The excitement comes when you think about the ways this building will be used. The creativity and community activism that have been so characteristic of Greenbelt over nearly 60 years will continue in this building for generations to come.

Orchid Show & Sale

Here is a chance to view thousands of exotic orchids in one of the most colorful shows held at the National Arboretum. This three-day event is sponsored by The National Orchid Society and FONA. There will be plants for sale and orchid experts on hand to answer questions on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, October 7, 8 and 9 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Administration Building Auditorium.

For information call (202) 245-2726.

Schools Sponsor Saturday Academy

The Prince Georges County Public Schools' Equity 2000 Program will again provide an enriching Saturday Academy experience for middle school students. The Academy operates for six Saturdays and will be held at two sites, Prince Georges Community College and the University of Maryland at College Park.

The dates for the academy at the University of Maryland at College Park are October 7 and 28, November 4, 11 and 18, and December 2. Among the middle schools participating at this site are Charles Carroll, Hyattsville, Greenbelt, and Robert Goddard.

The Saturday Academy is a student support program designed to help implement the Equity 2000 vision that all students can learn and excel at the highest level, given the opportunity and support. The program provides students with the opportunity to be exposed to academic enrichment activities focused on mathematics, science, technology, career development, and communications.

Included in the academy is a special parent involvement/support component. Students will be expected to attend all sessions, while parents, or a significant adult, will be expected to attend the first and the last sessions.

The Saturday Academy is funded by a grant to the Equity 2000 program from the Rockefeller Foundation.

For more information, contact Dr. Rhonda Gill at (301) 808-5956.

See What Hubble Saw

The Howard B. Owens Science Center announces a special planetarium program, "Through the Eyes of Hubble," on Friday, October 13 at 7:30 p.m.

"Through the Eyes of Hubble" offers spectacular images from the Hubble Space Telescope. Observers can witness the evidence for solar systems in formation, relive the catastrophic impact of Comet SL-9 with Jupiter, and stand perilously close to the edge of a supermassive Black Hole. The film will be followed by a live presentation to aid in finding stars, planets, and constellations of the night sky.

The H.B. Owens Science Center is located at 9601 Greenbelt Road, Lanham (next to Duval High School). There is a fee. Call (301) 918-8750 for information.

All American Concert

The Prince Georges Philharmonic will open its 30th season Saturday, Oct. 14 with an "All American" program in Hallam Theatre, Prince Georges Community College.

The evening begins at 7:30 with a pre-concert recital, followed by the philharmonic under the direction of Ray Fowler. The philharmonic's program will feature acclaimed baritone Reginald Pindell and works by American composers Copland, Gould and Ives.

The "Preludes" pre-concert recital series will be introduced by Bowie's Carolyn Bock, whose original composition, "Skyworks: Cosmic Vignettes for Woodwind Quintet," will be premiered. There is a fee. For more information or tickets call (301) 454-1462.

Education Workshop

The Prince Georges County school system and the Maryland Education Colaition will co-sponsor a workshop on education at High Point High School in Beltsville, on Saturday, Oct. 7, from 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m.

Titled Schools for Tomorrow: Creating a Plan for Change, the workshop will cover several topics including innovations at the school house, programs linking schools and communities, teachers and parents learning for the future, becoming well-versed in the national education agenda, team sharing, and the courts' impact on education fudning in Maryland.

School Board Member Beverly Beander, whose district includes High Point High School, will be joined by State Schools Superintendent Dr. Nancy Grasmick, and Maryland Education Coalition Executive Director Tru Ginsburg during the program.

Registration for the workshop will be on a first come, first served basis. High Point High Schooll is located at 3601 Powder Mill Road in Beltsville, Maryland.

For more information, contact the Maryland Education Coalition at (410) 719-0400.

Attention Kids!

The Greenbelt Public Library is sponsoring a magazine for kids, by kids. Children 5-15 are asked to submit original stories, poems, artwork, puzzles, games and nonviolent cartoons. Help choose a name and illustration for the cover. All articles must be neatly printed and include the author's name, address and phone number. Submissions may be brought to the children's desk at the Greenbelt Library. For more info call Lynn Illback at 345-5800.

Honey Show

The Maryland Beekeepers Association will hold its 58th Annual Honey Show with exhibits on honey and honeycombs, candles, molded and artistic wax and mead, or honey wine.

Additional exhibits will feature bee collected pollen and honey cooking.

A series of lectures will be given from noon to 5 p.m. in the National Arboretum's Administration Building. Lecture topics include Bee Forage Plants, a report on The Status of Beekeeping, Fall and Winter Beekeeping Management, and a program on Honey Cooking. The honey show and lectures will be held in the Administration Building on Saturday, October 14. Honey Show: 10 a.m.-5 p.m.; Lectures will be noon to 5 p.m.

For more information call (202) 245-2726.

Aviation Art Seminar

College Park Airport Museum, 1909 Corporal Frank Scott Drive, College Park, will host its Annual Aviation Art Seminar on Sunday, Oct. 15 at 1 p.m.

This event will feature a short slide presentation on aviation art and various artists discussing their craft. This event is free but reservations are recommended.

This event is sponsored by The Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission. Department of Parks and Recreation, Prince Georges County.

The Department of Parks and Recreation is committed to accommodating individuals with disabilities. Please contact the facility manager if assistance is needed to participate or if you have any questions. For further information call (301) 864-6029; TTY (301) 864-4765.

Search for Top County Volunteers

Nominations are being sought for the most outstanding volunteers in Prince Georges County. Adults, youths, groups and corporate volunteers are eligible for nomination for their exemplary community service. The Prince Georges County Volunteer Award program is coordinated annually by the Prince Georges Voluntary Action Center. Nomination deadline is Oct. 30. Awardees will be recognized by the county executive and members of the county council at an awards ceremony which is held at the County Administration Building, Upper Marlboro.

For more information or, to nominate volunteers, call the Voluntary Action Center at 301-699-2800.

Labor Day Festival 15 K Race Results

They came from near and far for the 37th running of the D.C. Road Runners 15 kilometer (9.3) mile race - 134 men and 42 women for a total of 176 finishers. Although the weather was favorable for running, not too hot and with an evening start at 6 p.m., still some runners did not finish. The oldest runner was Al Gutttag, 77, of Gaithersburg, MD in 120th place in 1:31:07. The youngest was Alison Slade, 14, in 18th place among the women in 1:16:32. The winner was Jim Hage, 37, Lanham, MD in 48:58 over a minute faster than Michael Wilson's time last year. Second was Pardo Jorge, 28, Blacksburg, VA in 49:17, both among the faster times in the history of this race. Hage had the advantage of running on this course many times and often has won the 10 or 20 mile here. Pardo made a race of it, staying with Hage up until the 5 kilometer point, 1/3 way through the course and only losing by 19 seconds. The first female was Bea Marie Altieri, 28, Columbia, MD, the winner last year in 56:32. This year she did 57:37 in defeating Bernette Flynn, 38, Burke, VA, who ran 1:01:02, 3 and 1/2 minutes back. The first master was James Moreland, 43, Gaithersburg, MD in 14th place in 56:27. The first female master was Sonija Buchanan, 50, Alexandria, VA in 1:22:02.

Greenbelters finished as follows: Men: James Pollard, 4th in 51:24; Kevin Brown, 43rd in 1:05:43; David Manning, 76th in 1:13:55; Mark Manheimer, 87th in 1:16:08; Joe Broderick, 92nd in 1:17:37; Robert Bosworth 116th in 1:26:57 and Donald Comis, 119th in 1:30:24. Women: Ellen Pollard, 5th in 1:04:45; Sue Treacy, 7th in 1:08:09; Jennifer Amicone, 35th in 1:34:51; and Helen German, 38th in 1:36:37.

The course was remarked and re-certified last year due to changing the start to St. Hugh's School parking lot. The map of the course can be seen at the Youth Center. The course is marked in kilometers (one kilometer is .62 of a mile) on the right side of the road going out and the left coming in.

Complete results are available at the Youth Center.

Tutors Needed

The Literacy Council of Prince Georges County has an urgent need for volunteers to work with adult new readers in the county.

For information on upcoming workshops and orientation sessions, please call B. Diggs at 322-5290.

GIVES Board Develops Start-up Plans

The first-ever full meeting of the Board of Directors of the Greenbelt Intergenerational Volunteer Exchange Service (GIVES) was held on September 21. Chair Janet Parker began by introducing the other members of the executive committee: J Davis, vice-chair; Betty Deitch, secretary; Nancy Birner, treasurer; and Pat Unger, publicity chair. She also presented the honorary board members in attendance: Booker Hughes of the Senior Citizens Advisory Committee; Lillian Lee of the Paint Branch Unitarian Universalist Church; the Honorable Joan Pitkin, Delegate from the 23rd District; and Thomas X. White, Greenbelt City Council member.

A status report was given by Thelma Yarborough, the VISTA volunteer assigned to GIVES by the Cooperative Caring Network (CCN), and Karen Haseley, city liaison from the Recreation Department. Sixty-three volunteers are registered in the computer at the present time and matches are being made to fill requests for assistance, especially for transportation to medical appointments.

The GIVES office is in the process of moving from the Youth Center to the Community Center. Hours are expected to be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The new phone number is 507-6580. Until an answering machine is connected, messages may be left with the Recreation Department office at 397-2200 or with Janet Parker at 474-6668.

By consensus the additional working board members — Dolores Downs, Dorothy Pyles, Beth Smith, and Leah Warner — joined the others in adopting participation policies as outlined in the CCN policy manual and asked Yarborough to continue preparing training materials for volunteer orientation. They also set up a subcommittee to plan a membership drive throughout the city over the Thanksgiving holiday and approved a grant application to the Prince Georges Foundation, Inc.

The executive committee will conduct business until the board meets in early 1996.

Community Outreach For Greenbelt CARES

During the month of September, several staff members of Greenbelt CARES have been engaged in community outreach.

Judye Hering attended the First Look Volunteer Fair at the University of Maryland on Sept. 20. The purpose of the fair is to familiarize students with volunteer programs and community service, and recruit students for programs in which they can obtain college credit and professional experience.

Teresa Smithson met with Carolyn Rodner, guidance counselor at Springhill Lake Elementary School on Sept. 20. They discussed group counseling plans for the 1995-96 school year.

Judye Hering met on Sept. 21 with Kristin Pfeltz, Community Specialist at Eleanor Roosevelt High School. Pfeltz will be coordinating the OASIS Schools for the Roosevelt cluster, and the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the coordination of volunteer programs; how to publicize volunteer programs; recruit, train and maintain volunteer tutors; and discuss issues such as liability insurance.

Eliot Levine has joined our Wednesday Evening Family Clinic Volunteer Staff. He is currently a doctoral candidate in clinical and community psychology at the University of Maryland, College Park.

Calling All Pets

Pets on Wheels is seeking pet owners to visit nursing homes and provide "pet facility therapy." All visiting pets are screened by trainers, and suggestions are given as to how to help the pet become a better "visitor." This position is available in adult day care centers in Laurel, Brentwood, Oxon Hill, College Park and Greenbelt. For more information, or to volunteer, call the Prince Georges Volunteer Action Center on 699-2800.

United Cerebral Palsy Seeks Donated Cars

Donate a car or other vehicle to United Cerebral Palsy (UCP). Call UCP at 262-4993 or 1-800-621-9403. UCP handles paper processing, picking up vehicle, selling it at an auction and a statement for tax purposes. There is no charge to the donor.

All proceeds go to UCP to help support its many programs.

Planning Board Holds Hearings

The Prince Georges County Planning Board of The Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission has scheduled a series of public forums to solicit comments on the Commission's budget for planning, parks and recreation for the next fiscal year which begins July 1, 1996.

The public forums are planned for three different dates and locations, to accommodate citizens and community groups throughout the County. The forums will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. The forum nearest Greenbelt will be Tuesday, October 17 at the Parks and Recreation Administration Building, Riverdale.

Individuals and representatives of community organizations who wish to speak at the forum may register in advance by calling 301/952-4584, TTY 301/952-3796.

Written comments will also be accepted until October 27. Com-

City Notes

Public Works employees have been busy installing snow removal equipment on 4 trucks, and salt spreaders were mounted in two trucks. These trucks are all ready for winter service. Pre-season repairs and checks have begun on all snow removal equipment.

City officials expressed their appreciation to Greenbelt Police Officers Haizer and Walters for stopping and discouraging an individual from scavenging newspapers from curbside recycling buckets. This individual was selling recycled newspapers for profit. The city uses revenues collected from the recycling program to defray some of the recycling program costs.

I-495/I-95 (CAPITAL BELTWAY) HOV STUDY FROM THE AMERICAN LEGION BRIDGE TO THE WOODROW WILSON BRIDGE

This study will investigate ways to improve travel on Maryland's portion of the Capital Beltway, from the American Legion Bridge to the Woodrow Wilson Bridge, in Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties. In cooperation with other agencies, Maryland will look at a wide range of possible strategies including HOV lanes to address the current traffic problems and future traffic growth, as well as safety along the Beltway.

The study area includes the immediate vicinity of the Beltway and extends to the first intersection along the radial routes.

The purpose of these workshops is to acquaint the public with the study process and goals of the project. The findings of the engineering and environmental inventories and the initial set of strategies to address the transportation problems along the Beltway will be presented at this workshop. Public input and feedback is an important element of this study.

The study team includes representatives from Maryland, Virginia, the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments, federal agencies and local and regional government agencies. Maps, handouts and videos describing various aspects of the project will be on display. A brief pre-recorded slide presentation will be shown periodically during the workshop. Representatives of the State Highway Administration, Mass Transit Administration, Montgomery and Prince Georges Counties and the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments will be available to discuss the project and answer questions.

Citizen involvement in this project is encouraged. Comments and requests to be included on the mailing list, may be submitted to Mrs. R. Suseela Rajan at the State Highway Administration, Project Planning Division, P.O. Box 717, Baltimore, Maryland 21203-0717 or call toll-free, within Maryland, 1-800-548-5026.

Appropriate auxiliary aids and services for qualified individuals with disabilities will be provided upon request. Please call the representative at the above phone number or the Maryland Relay Service at 1-800-735-2258 if such aids are required.

Local FOP Is "On-Line," Free Access to Users

by Babita Kapoor

With an on-line tsunami crashing down on the electronic highway, the average person finds himself being swept away by a veritable torrent of information. Yet as the horizons of the global cyber-village stretch out toward infinity, most people are developing an escalating interest in cruising this infobahn.

No wonder, then, that the Greenbelt Fraternal Order of Police (FOP) has established an Electronic Bulletin Board System (BBS) to disseminate information on a wide array of topics. According to Officer Steven Keller of the Greenbelt police force, who is the System Operator (SYSOP) and driving force behind the new facility, "BBS is a system which enables people to share files and programs, send electronic mail, chat, and at the same time post public messages. With a graphical interface it becomes fairly simple for beginners to navigate the system."

The BBS harbors approximately 10,000 files and is growing at a rapid pace. Users can access conferences, White House press releases, discussions about the rising incidence of AIDS, ads for canoes in the Local For-Sale file, and Shareware games. They can dispel any lurking doubts about medical problems, or obtain an answer to that frustrating query of why they got that speeding ticket when the car ahead was going faster. All users need to do is simply go to the file menu and select the relevant file.

Available to All

Access to the BBS is free, and one merely requires a computer, modem, phone line, and communications software to log on to the system. The BBS is available to all FOP, police, fire fighters, and the public, and is open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The phone number is 301-552-2418.

The Greenbelt FOP BBS is also part of the National FOPNET, which is dedicated to information relating to FOP and offers conferences on topics such as "Ask A Cop."

Other Conferences

As a member of the National Law Enforcement Message System (NLEMS), the Greenbelt FOP receives all of the NLEMS conferences such as "In Memory Of...", "Close Calls", and "Police Patches Collectibles." The BBS is also a member of PoliceNet and SafeNet. PoliceNet adds about 20 new conferences with its World Wide Echoes. SafeNet also adds another 25 conferences with topics such as O.S.H.A., Medical Professionals, and many other fire service, medical, and EMS conferences.

There are over 6000 files available for downloading, from DOS and Windows utilities and programs to DOS games such as DOOM. The system has Cds on line to provide an additional 4000 files for downloading. The system uses PCBoard Version 15.21 as the BBS software. The system has two notes (lines) that will support up to 14.4 BPS on a US Robotics Sportster modem. Users need to set their software for "8-N-1", meaning "8" data bits, "N" no parity, and "1" stop bit and any speed up to 14,000 BPS. This PCBoard can be used to communicate with people around the world, to exchange programs and data files, to get technical information and advice, or even to play online games or access data-based information.

News Review Sets Annual Meeting

The Greenbelt Cooperative Publishing Association will hold its annual meeting on Sunday, October 29 at 7:30 p.m. at 3 Maplewood Court. All staff members are invited and encouraged to attend.

Agenda items include: comments and suggestions regarding appearance of the paper, move to the community center and election of a new board of directors.

For information call 441-8769.

Fun at Goddard

There will be a star watch on Saturday, October 14 from 7-9 p.m. Come view the autumn sky. Bring binoculars or telescope and telescopes are available. Rain date is Saturday, October 21.

Also on Saturday will be two videos in honor of the 113 years since the birth of Dr. Robert Goddard. Videos start at 1 p.m. and last about 30 minutes.

On Sunday October 15 at 1 p.m. there will be a model rocket launch. Bring a rocket or come out and watch others. All launches are monitored for safety and are held weather permitting. For information call 286-8981.

State Warns Caution of Lawn Seed Ads

Maryland Secretary of Agriculture Lewis R. Riley urges all Maryland homeowners to be cautious of lawn seed advertisements appearing in various newspapers and magazines that promise fantastic lawns in a wide variety of conditions with no soil preparation.

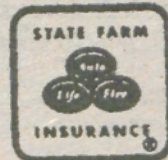

The Maryland Department of Agriculture's Turf and Seed Section recently did a laboratory test on one such product and found the seed to be heavily contaminated with noxious weed seed and thus illegal for sale in Maryland.

Anyone who has questions about grass seed or other seed products may contact their local extension office for turfgrass variety recommendations or the Maryland Department of Agriculture, Turf and Seed Section, 50 Harry S. Truman Parkway, Annapolis, MD 21401, Telephone (410) 841-5960.

WHEN IT COMES TO DESCRIBING AMERICA'S CO-OPS, THE SKY'S THE LIMIT!

The nation's 47,000 cooperatives are big and small. They serve 120 million people in all 50 states. And, they're located everywhere — cities, towns, suburbs and throughout rural America.

Providing goods and services as economically and efficiently as possible is their first order of business. And as locally owned and controlled businesses, co-ops are unique because of their commitment not only to the people they serve but also to their communities.

You'll find co-ops for credit and financing, electric and telephone service, insurance, food, day care, health care, housing, farm marketing and supply, news services, florists and much more.

For years co-ops have been expanding horizons for the people they serve. In their own words: "It's just good business, and it works for the benefit of our neighbors, our communities and for our country too."

POLICE BLOTTER

Based on Information Released by the Greenbelt Police Department

Around 1 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 24, a resident woman was kidnapped from a parking lot in the 200 block of Lakeside Dr. The woman reported being approached by a man armed with a screwdriver. The man told the woman to get back into the vehicle, then asked for directions and demanded money. The woman gave the man the cash from her wallet. The man drove south on the Baltimore-Washington Parkway, stopping a short distance south of I-95. The suspect pulled the woman into the woods and attempted to rape her. The suspect let the woman go, after she told him people would be looking for her, and drove off in her vehicle. The vehicle was recovered near the woman's residence in the middle of a parking lot with the lights on. The victim was not seriously injured during the incident. The suspect is described as a Hispanic male, about 25 years old, 5'8", 150 lbs., black hair, brown eyes, unshaven, wearing a white, maroon, and red flannel shirt, and blue jeans.

While three people were removing old carpet from a unit in the 6200 block of Breezewood Ct. on Wednesday, Sept. 27, someone removed a toolbox containing various carpet laying tools. Three people were observed in the area. The three workers followed the suspects to an apartment where a confrontation occurred resulting in one of the suspects pointing a small pistol at one of the workers. The suspects then entered an apartment in the 6200 block of Breezewood Ct. after being told that the police had been contacted. A search and seizure warrant was obtained. The toolbox was located in the apartment with the following two suspects arrested in connection with the theft: a 26-year-old resident man, charged with theft over $300, and held on $2,000 bond pending trial; and a 30-year-old resident man, charged with common law assault, and held on $1,500 bond pending trial.

A report of a man with a gun inside Beltway Plaza Mall was made on Friday, Sept. 22. Officers found a 19-year-old non-resident man in possession of a .40 caliber semi-automatic pistol for which he did not have a permit. The man was arrested, charged with carrying a handgun, and held on $1,000 bond pending trial.

Someone called an office suite in a building on Golden Triangle Dr. on Tuesday, Sept. 26, and asked the person who answered if they knew there was a bomb in the building. The building was checked and no explosive, or suspicious devices, were found.

Greenbelt Police were contacted on Thursday, Sept. 21 by Tempe, Arizona Police, regarding a package addressed to a box number at Parcel Plus, 7500 block of Greenbelt Rd. The package, containing over six pounds of suspected marijuana, had been intercepted in Arizona during a drug interdiction operation. A controlled delivery involving an undercover narcotics officer was made the following day. The parcel was retrieved by a 37-year-old non-resident man, who was arrested in the parking lot. The suspect was charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance (CDS) with intent to distribute and possession of a CDS, and held on $50,000 bond pending trial.

A woman reported a suspicious person in the 6200 block of Breezewood Dr. on Wednesday, Sept. 27. The woman reported the man was standing to the rear of her residence watching her through a window the night before, and on several occasions last winter. The man is described as a white male, about 30-years-old, 5'10", 160-170 lbs., shoulder length blond hair, last seen wearing a green sweatshirt, blue jeans and dark colored shoes.

A resident woman was the victim of an attempted strong-arm robbery in the 7900 block of Mandan Rd. on Friday, Sept. 22. As the woman was walking toward her building, the suspect stepped out of a dark corner and demanded her purse. The victim refused and a struggle ensued. The suspect fled the area on foot, after failing to obtain the purse. The suspect is described as a black male, 17 to 20 years old, 5'6" to 5'8", approximately 150 lbs., black hair, with a blue and white bandanna on his face, wearing a dark colored t-shirt and loose fitting blue jeans.

A disabled motorist was the victim of a theft by deception. The incident, reported on Saturday, Sept. 23, took place the evening before. The victim's vehicle was towed to the parking lot of Greenway Center after becoming disabled on I-95 near the B-W Parkway. The suspect told the victim the auto parts store in the shopping center did not have the part needed to repair the vehicle and he offered to go elsewhere to purchase it. The victim gave the suspect money for the part; he left and never returned. The suspect is described as a black male, who said his name was Jay, approximately 30-years-old, 5'9", 180 lbs., black hair, brown eyes, wearing dark green Nike pants and jacket, and a Nike baseball hat.

An assault and battery occurred in Beltway Plaza on Tuesday, Sept. 26. The victim, who knows the suspect, was struck in the mouth twice, by the suspect. The cause of the assault is unknown and the incident is under investigation.

After responding to a call of a man and woman screaming, officers found six children, ages two to nine, unattended in an apartment in the 9100 block of Edmonston Rd. on Friday, Sept. 22. The adult who was supposed to be supervising the children returned to the apartment an hour later. The adult, a 28-year-old non-resident woman, was arrested, charged with leaving children unattended, and released on citation pending trial.

Thefts

A Mandan Rd. resident reported the theft of a VISA checkcard on Tuesday, Sept. 26. The card was used to withdraw funds from her account. The card was possibly intercepted in the mail sometime during the past couple of weeks.

A green 26", 18 speed, men's Trail Blazer brand mountain bike was reported stolen on Sunday, Sept. 24. The theft occurred in the 9100 block of Springhill Lane.

The theft of currency, and jewelry, from a residence in the 6100 block of Springhill Terrace was reported on Wednesday, Sept. 27. The theft occurred during the first two weeks of September.

Other thefts reported include: a purse taken from an office suite in the 6300 block of Ivy Lane on Thursday, Sept. 28; the theft of building materials from a construction site in the 6600 block of Springcrest Dr. on Monday, Sept. 25; and the theft of currency from an unlocked file drawer inside an office in the 6300 block of Ivy Lane on Friday, Sept. 22.

Auto Thefts

A 1994 Honda Accord reported stolen from the 6100 block of Breezewood Dr. on Sept. 20, was recovered by Metropolitan Police in the 5100 block of B Street S.E. The vehicle was not driveable and no arrests were made in connection with the recovery.

Additional automobile thefts reported include: a black 1992 Honda Accord four-door, MD tags ADR580, stolen from the 7500 block of Hanover Pkwy on Wednesday, Sept. 27; a blue 1993 Pontiac Sunbird, VA tags T MASTRO, from Legion Dr. on Saturday, Sept. 23; a green 1995 Ford Ranger truck, MD tags 21C396 from the 6000 block of Greenbelt Rd. on Monday, Sept. 25; and a blue 1989 Pontiac Grand AM, MD tags ISCUBA, from the 8000 block of Mandan Rd. on Tuesday, Sept. 26.

Vandalism to, thefts from, and attempted theft of vehicles were reported in the following areas: 5900 block of Cherrywood Terrace, 9300 block of Edmonston Rd. (two incidents), 7500 and 7700 blocks of Hanover Pkwy., 7900 block of Mandan Rd., and 9200 block of Springhill Lane.
